We are pleased to announce the delivery of BSB41407 Certificate IV in Occupational Health and Safety available via self paced E-learning

Do you want your OHS skills to stand out in the crowd?

This course is ideal if you are currently working in an OHS role (such as OHS Officer, OHS Coordinator or OHS Committee member) and you are seeking to expand, or achieve formal recognition of your existing skills and knowledge.

The Certificate IV in OHS is relevant if you have responsibility for safety in the workplace or if you would like to pursue a career in OHS.

Occupational Health & Safety professionals are always in demand, and this course is usually the minimum requirement for health and safety management in any workplace.

The overall duration of the course is dependent on the level of intensity of the participant, generally between 6 and 18 months is sufficient. The course is self paced and has a field placement of 120 hours—which ITR sources for you.

Our qualified trainer has extensive experience across various industries and will be your mentor throughout the entire course.

Do you want assistance to source employment in OHS?

ITR guarantees to (where the participant completes the full course):

- assist with the development of your resume and job applications as part of the overall course cost.
- ITR, through its employment services team will be able to source relevant vacancies for interview.
